First in War---First in Peace. We find in the Dover Gazette, the following stray laurel leaves which belong to the noble brow of the "Granite State." No wonder she remains the staunchest Democratic State in the Union :

"In reading the life of Gen. John Sullivan, by O. W. B. Peabody, published in the third volume of the second series of 'Spark's American Biography,' we were reminded of two facts honorable to the character of New Hampshire, and showing that her position of Pioneer in the cause of the people, and of constitutional liberty, was assumed at an early day in our national history. The first act of open and direct hostility to the Government of Great Britain-the Gent's fine goat Morocco Boots; Ladies' fine bik lasting well gaiters first seizure of the King's property by a military force of a colony-the first disarming and imprisonment of the King's soldiers, in our revolutionary struggle, took place in New Hampshire, when John Sullivan and John Langdon, at the head of a few militia of Portsmouth, and its vicinity, took possession of Fort William and Mary, at New Castle, imprisoned the garrison, and carried away to a place of security, one hundred barrels of King George's gunpowder, fifteen of the lighter cannon of the fort, upwards of sixty stand of small arms, and other military stores! This was in December, 1774, four months before the Battle of Lexington, and nearly five months before the first act of forcible opposition to the King's authority was made in Virginia, by a military force under the command of Patrick Henry.

New Hampshire was also the first of the British American colonies to form a State Constitution, which WE are now receiving, direct from our Manufactory, the following assortment of Bats and Caps, made of the latest styles, from the was adopted on the 5th day of January, 1776, six 200 dozen fashionable Brush and Plain Hats; months prior to the Declaration of American Independence. TO PRINTERS. Newspaper Establishment for Sale. HE undersigned wishes to dispose of the "Jeffersonian" Printing Office, located in Richmond, Wayne county, Indiana. The effersonian was established in 1837, and has been published regularly since except for a short period in 1839. It has a circulation of over 500, and with proper exertions could be considerably increased. The advertising and job patronage is good. It is the only democratic paper published in the fourth Congressional District, which contains 4,

The materials of the office consist of a good double medium Rust Press, fonts of Pica, Small Pica, Long Primer, Bourgeois and Brevier type, &c. &c., together with all the necessary materials for printing a newspaper. Also, a good assortment of Job Type, and a Standing Press. The office is among the best of country offices. Any person wishing to embark in the printing business would find this a favora' le Jocation. For terms, & c. address the undersigned by letter (post paid) JAMES ELDER. Richmond, la.
